BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Early man depended on hunting, fishing and food gathering. To this day, some groups still pursue this simple way of life and others have continued as roving herdsmen. However, as various groups of men undertook deliberate cultivation of wild plants and domestication of wild animals, agriculture came into being. Cultivation of crops, notably grains such as wheat, rice, barley and millets, encouraged settlement of stable farm communities, some of which grew into a town or city in various parts of the world.

Early agricultural implements-digging stick, hoe, scythe and plough-developed slowly over the centuries and each innovation caused profound changes in human life. From early times too, men created indigenous systems of irrigation especially in semi-arid areas and regions of periodic rainfall.

Farming was intimately associated with landholding and therefore with political organization.

Growth of large estates involved the use of slaves and bound or semi-free labourers. As the Middle Ages wanted increasing communications, the commercial revolution and the steady rise of cities in Western Europe tended to turn agriculture away from subsistence farming towards the growing of crops for sale

MR. VISHNU KUMAR WORKING WITH RAJA HYUNDAI FATEHABAD HARYANA LAST 6+ . HE IS VERY HARD WORK AND HONEST PERSON. HIS PERSONALTY IS VERY HIGH JOB PROFILE OF RAJA HUNDAI FATEHABAD CarWale was launched in October 2005 by Mohit, Gaurav, Tufail and Arun. Since then we have been credited with several initiatives for Indian car consumers. In 2005, we became the first website in India to consolidate used car inventory across dealers and present it to car buyers as an online marketplace.

In 2006, we launched India's first Used Car Price Guide. For the first time, a used car buyer or seller could see what was the actual market value of their vehicle, depending on the car's model, variant, age, condition, mileage, city and whether they were transacting with a dealer or an individual. Today, CarWale's Used Car Price Guide stands as India's most comprehensive and credible source of information on used car prices. We offer prices for all the popular cars sold in India since 1991 across 28 cities.

In 2007, we launched India's most comprehensive resource on car research, along with several tools and features such as Recommend-Me-A-Car, compare cars, owner reviews, and one of our most popular features -on-road prices. We offer on-road prices of all cars available in India for 200 cities and towns.

In 2008, we announced voting for India's first consumer choice car awards. We got over 1.6 lakh responses from car buyers and owners, making it India's most credible car awards - a true voice of the people of India.

In 2009, we started a unique model of offering free car consultation to car buyers across India. We also helped them with dealer quotations and test drives at their doorstep. We also brought together loan processing and insurance options so a buyer could actually get the best available car price, the cheapest loan and the lowest insurance quote. All this without so much as leaving your seat

We also started a unique event called Vintage

Friendly and approachable

Beauticians must get along well with all kinds of people and be able to work comfortably with everyone. It is also important for them to be very polite and conversational.

Good time-management skills

There are quiet days in the saloon and there will be days when the beauticians' diary is full. Therefore a good time-management is essential to keep the customers happy. No one likes to wait hours for their treatment and no one likes if their appointment is canceled. Although some people are naturally good at time-keeping, it is a skill that can be learned.

When the beauticians' diary is full it's not just time management they need, but also good stamina. They need to keep going especially around national holidays when everybody wants to look great in the eyes of their family members or friends.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Introduction

"Love of beauty is taste. The creation of beauty is art."

Here's what I _Neeru_ know about beauty at (Lovely beauty parlour) as a career.

As the country's economy is growing and the spending power of people is increasing, beauty and wellness industry has gained lot of lucrativeness. Interestingly, this industry remains unaltered during inflation, recession and economic crisis in the world. Women keep on spending a good amount in maintaining their skin and hair and men are not far behind.

The Beauty and wellness professionals are those who give beauty therapy essentially facials and other services like make up and cosmetics to the clients. They also offer special therapies and dietary regimen to the clients.

Today beauty and wellness go hand in hand. Thus there is a lot of emphasis on health and fitness. Training people on health and beauty and also treatments for body-figure correction, body sculpting, makeup etc has become an important part of this profession.

Another addition to this profession is Spa management and treatments, these are a rage these days. Spa therapy helps reduce the stress and has skin and health benefits.

To be a perfect beautician following things should be taken in consideration:-

1. Personal hygiene
2. Public hygiene
3. First Aid
4. Epilepsy
5. Faint
6. Sterilization
7. Electric Shock

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Customers often won't know exactly what they want or what beauty treatments they really need. Asking clients questions and using skin analysis to evaluate their needs allows beauty therapists to recommend appropriate treatments.

Keep Tools Sterilized and Manage Stock

Beauty therapists are responsible for keeping all their tools and their beauty room clean and sterilized. They must also replace used inventory to avoid running out of supplies.

Perform Skin Treatments

Customers will come to beauty therapists for a variety of skin rejuvenation treatments, including peels, facials, and anti-acne treatments.

Provide Waxing Treatments

Hair removal is a popular beauty treatment, so beauty therapists need to know how to wax legs, eyebrows, and bikini lines in order to provide all the services that clients will want.

Massage Therapy

Keeping customers relaxed is essential, so many beauty therapists use massage techniques to help clients release tension. Facial, hand, foot, and back massages may all be used by beauty therapists to keep clients calm and happy.

Give Manicures and Pedicures

Customers also want beautiful hands and feet, so it's very common for a beauty therapist to offer manicures and pedicures.

Schedule Appointments

Beauty therapists greet customers who walk into the salon or spa, answer phones, and schedule appointments.

The key to effective technical writing is straightforwardness and simplicity. It is an efficient and clear way of explaining to its readers how something works, and the likes of instruction manuals, reports of analysis, and user manuals can be considered to fall under the category of technical writing.

As a good technical writer, one cannot afford to write in first person. Use an impersonal style of writing and from a third person perspective, much like how a teacher would talk to a student! Even if you feel like presenting your point of view, forget about it. Any sort of an opinion must be omitted. ometimes even the simplest of the terms might get difficult to understand and hence, your write-up should have ample amount of visuals to help the readers comprehend and perform the complex task all by themselves. These visuals can be in the form of illustrations, diagrams, screenshots, and even flow charts! They are a great way to balance the text out and help connect you to the readers.

growth and market size of IT industry in India

The Information Technology & Information Technology Enabled Services (IT-ITeS) sector is a field which is undergoing rapid evolution and is changing the shape of Indian business standards. This sector includes software development, consultancies, software management, online services and business process outsourcing (BPO).

According to an article in the Times of India, India's liberalization was possible due to its IT industry. In the 1990s, the industry started off with an export of nearly $100 million with around 5,000 employees. Now it is an industry that thrives globally and India's IT exports are now around $70 billion with 2.8 million employees working in this sector. The article states that the IT sector is one of the top two industries in the country today.

India's IT industry is expected to grow at a rate of 12 - 14% during 2016 - 2017 as per a report by India's software industry body National Association of Software and Services Companies (NASSCOM.) This clearly shows that information technology is a sector which will likely be one of the emerging markets in the days to come as India's economy requires more hardware, software and other IT services. In a NASSCOM-McKinsey report, India's position in the global offshore IT industry is based on five factors - abundant talent, creation of urban infrastructure, operational excellence, conducive business environment and finally, continued growth in the domestic IT sector.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Success is everyone's mission. Life is full of challenges and opportunities, but only for those who actually struggle to grab the opportunities and overcome the challenges. Hard work and dedication are the only mantra in the journey to success. Without being passionate and the willingness to work hard, no one can achieve success. There can be several occasions when you may have to deliver Speech on Success. We share here different samples of success speech that will help you in making an impressive speech to the audience. At school level, you may use the short speech on success at occasions like 'Teacher's Day', 'Annual Day,' etc. You can take inspiration from our long speech on success for college level or even for the corporate level occasions. We don't use jargons or complicated sentences, instead the language used in these sample speeches are simple, but highly effective.

I can understand that many of you must not even have decided about your career goals. Some of you might go for further studies, some may join the corporate world and some of you may join your family business. Each option would come with its own prospects and challenges. You must only concentrate on your activities and must not imagine the consequences. Don't get disheartened, if you fail initially, instead keep trying. Remember that your mistakes give you valuable lessons in the end and also help you choose the right path. We have heard about several stories in our childhood such as the 'story of ant, who tries to climb the mountain' or 'slow and steady wins the race' and many more. The moral of all these stories is common that you should keep trying until you succeed and no matter you are slow but if you are steady, you are certainly going to win.

I won't say that life is a race and you should beat others to win. Instead, you must try to remain grounded even when you succeed. You guys are the future of our nation; you must also try to fulfil your social responsibilities so that the next generation can follow your footsteps. Today, we need people who are successful yet considerate. You have the

As a good technical writer, one cannot afford to write in first person. Use an impersonal style of writing and from a third person perspective, much like how a teacher would talk to a student! Even if you feel like presenting your point of view, forget about it. Any sort of an opinion must be omitted.ometimes even the simplest of the terms might get difficult to understand and hence, your write-up should have ample amount of visuals to help the readers comprehend and perform the complex task all by themselves. These visuals can be in the form of illustrations, diagrams, screenshots, and even flow charts! They are a great way to balance the text out and help connect you to the readers.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

MR. kulwinder singh is very tallented person along with hardworking and very good knowledge about subject.he is very good and subject caching power is very good.

its my good luck that i am delevering the lecture .Teaching can be a demanding profession. There are times when students can seem uninterested in learning and disruptive to the classroom environment. There are plenty of studies and educational strategies for improving student behavior. But personal experience may be the best way to show how to turn a difficult student into a dedicated pupil. I had such an experience: one where I was able to help change a student with major behavioral issues into a learning success story. This experience changed me as a teacher. I came to understand that students are people who have feelings and who don't want to feel cornered. They want to learn, but they also want to feel as if they have some control over themselves. I never made assumptions again about students before they came into my class. Every student is different; no two students react in the same way.

It is our task as teachers to find not only what motivates each student to learn but also what motivates them to misbehave. If we can meet them at that point and take away that motivation, we can go a long way toward achieving more effective classroom management and a better learning environment.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

growth and market size of IT industry in India

The Information Technology & Information Technology Enabled Services (IT-ITeS) sector is a field which is undergoing rapid evolution and is changing the shape of Indian business standards. This sector includes software development, consultancies, software management, online services and business process outsourcing (BPO).

According to an article in the Times of India, India's liberalization was possible due to its IT industry. In the 1990s, the industry started off with an export of nearly $100 million with around 5,000 employees. Now it is an industry that thrives globally and India's IT exports are now around $70 billion with 2.8 million employees working in this sector. The article states that the IT sector is one of the top two industries in the country today.

India's IT industry is expected to grow at a rate of 12 - 14% during 2016 - 2017 as per a report by India's software industry body National Association of Software and Services Companies (NASSCOM.) This clearly shows that information technology is a sector which will likely be one of the emerging markets in the days to come as India's economy requires more hardware, software and other IT services. In a NASSCOM-McKinsey report, India's position in the global offshore IT industry is based on five factors - abundant talent, creation of urban infrastructure, operational excellence, conducive business environment and finally, continued growth in the domestic IT sector.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

It is believed that success is achieved when hard work meets opportunity. But opportunities arrive with time; does that mean, you must sit back and relax till the time opportunity arrives? Also, what if some unexpected opportunity arrives and you are not prepared? So it is always advisable that you prepare yourself for the expected or unexpected opportunity. It is important that you keep polishing your skills so that you don't lose even a single bit of the opportunity that may lead you to success in the long run.

It is also important that you give yourself the credit of the success that you achieve after putting your effort and energy. It's a very critical aspect because majority of the people give maximum credit to good luck or fortune; such people are not fearless, instead they are always worried about failures or mishaps. Instead of preparing themselves for bad days, they pray for a continued success. You must always treat yourself with kindness and encourage yourself along the journey of your life. Celebration of every victory whether small or big will boost your enthusiasm and encourage you to achieve more in life. I would also like to point here, some people are emotional and sensitive to the extent that they stop trying if they fail. You must understand that success and failure are the two sides of the same coin. Success is not a hereditary property of any individual. Even someone who takes over the ancestral successful business has to work harder to preserve that success. Thus, you must not get disheartened or discouraged even if you fail.

Determination is the principal secret of success. Your main aim should be to stay happy and satisfied. Some find happiness in staying healthy and some find by staying wealthy; but the most important part is that you should at least know what you want; only then half the journey is covered. You must stay focused on your goal and have the determination to follow your dreams and happiness; success will soon be your partner in your life's journey.

He is very honest person. He is very creative think about new technology.He passed MCA from GJU Hisar. He has have good knowldge about related subjects.

He is very Intelligent. He is a good communicator.He is good speaker. He has an 4 year working experience in this same field. He is in my technical circle from 8 year's. He is working on the post of Information assistant at hisar.

The key to effective technical writing is straightforwardness and simplicity. It is an efficient and clear way of explaining to its readers how something works, and the likes of instruction manuals, reports of analysis, and user manuals can be considered to fall under the category of technical writing.

As a good technical writer, one cannot afford to write in first person. Use an impersonal style of writing and from a third person perspective, much like how a teacher would talk to a student! Even if you feel like presenting your point of view, forget about it. Any sort of an opinion must be omitted.ometimes even the simplest of the terms might get difficult to understand and hence, your write-up should have ample amount of visuals to help the readers comprehend and perform the complex task all by themselves. These visuals can be in the form of illustrations, diagrams, screenshots, and even flow charts! They are a great way to balance the text out and help connect you to the readers.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

MR. Anil kumar is very tallented person along with hardworking and very good knowledge about subject.he is very good and subject caching power is very good.

its my good luck that i am delevering the lecture .Teaching can be a demanding profession. There are times when students can seem uninterested in learning and disruptive to the classroom environment. There are plenty of studies and educational strategies for improving student behavior. But personal experience may be the best way to show how to turn a difficult student into a dedicated pupil. I had such an experience: one where I was able to help change a student with major behavioral issues into a learning success story. This experience changed me as a teacher. I came to understand that students are people who have feelings and who don't want to feel cornered. They want to learn, but they also want to feel as if they have some control over themselves. I never made assumptions again about students before they came into my class. Every student is different; no two students react in the same way.

It is our task as teachers to find not only what motivates each student to learn but also what motivates them to misbehave. If we can meet them at that point and take away that motivation, we can go a long way toward achieving more effective classroom management and a better learning environment.

He is good speaker. He has an 4 year working experience in this same field. He is in my technical circle from 8 years. He is working on the post of Information assistant at hisar.

Any sort of an opinion must be omitted. sometimes even the simplest of the terms might get difficult to understand and hence, your write-up should have ample amount of visuals to help the readers comprehend and perform the complex task all by themselves.

As a good technical writer, one cannot afford to write in first person. Use an impersonal style of writing and from a third person perspective, much like how a teacher would talk to a student! Even if you feel like presenting your point of view, forget about it.

These visuals can be in the form of illustrations, diagrams, screenshots, and even flow charts! They are a great way to balance the text out and help connect you to the readers.

The key to effective technical writing is straightforwardness and simplicity. It is an efficient and clear way of explaining to its readers how something works, and the likes of instruction manuals, reports of analysis, and user manuals can be considered to fall under the category of technical writing.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

MR. ankit kumar is very tallented person along with hardworking and very good knowledge about subject.he is very good and subject caching power is very good.

its my good luck that i am delevering the lecture .Teaching can be a demanding profession. There are times when students can seem uninterested in learning and disruptive to the classroom environment. There are plenty of studies and educational strategies for improving student behavior. But personal experience may be the best way to show how to turn a difficult student into a dedicated pupil. I had such an experience: one where I was able to help change a student with major behavioral issues into a learning success story. This experience changed me as a teacher. I came to understand that students are people who have feelings and who don't want to feel cornered. They want to learn, but they also want to feel as if they have some control over themselves. I never made assumptions again about students before they came into my class. Every student is different; no two students react in the same way.

It is our task as teachers to find not only what motivates each student to learn but also what motivates them to misbehave. If we can meet them at that point and take away that motivation, we can go a long way toward achieving more effective classroom management and a better learning environment.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

MR. rajnish chandana is very talented person along with hardworking and very good knowledge about subject.he is very good and subject catching power is very good.

its my good luck that i am delevering the lecture .Teaching can be a demanding profession. There are times when students can seem uninterested in learning and disruptive to the classroom environment. There are plenty of studies and educational strategies for improving student behavior. But personal experience may be the best way to show how to turn a difficult student into a dedicated pupil. I had such an experience: one where I was able to help change a student with major behavioral issues into a learning success story. This experience changed me as a teacher. I came to understand that students are people who have feelings and who don't want to feel cornered. They want to learn, but they also want to feel as if they have some control over themselves. I never made assumptions again about students before they came into my class. Every student is different; no two students react in the same way.

It is our task as teachers to find not only what motivates each student to learn but also what motivates them to misbehave. If we can meet them at that point and take away that motivation, we can go a long way toward achieving more effective classroom management and a better learning environment.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Suman bala is from kuleri(hisar) she is very hard working and brilliant nurse. She passed her educational qualification from village in gsss kuleri.and passed her GNM from national school of nursing daryapur(fatehabad).Caring, compassion, and empathy sometimes are confused as one and the same, but there is an important distinction. Empathy is the ability to really hear and share in a patient's feelings. For a nurse, this doesn't mean you always have to agree with what a patient or their family thinks. And for your own self-preservation, you don't need to internalize the pain and suffering they may be experiencing. But it is very important that you listen and try to understand where they're coming from.

great nurse can make each patient feel seen and heard, without judgment, and with a recognition that each individual has their own valid set of values, life experiences, and perspectives.in life In the home care setting, a nurse serves as the detail-oriented coordinator of patient care. A good nurse will be the first to notice subtle changes in a patient's medical condition and alert physicians and other members of a health care team to respond in ways that can avoid a serious adverse health event or unnecessary hospitalization.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Neelam kamboj is from fatehabad and passed her GNM from SUS CLG OF NURSING RATIA (FATEHABAD) Decision-making on the job can be a delicate balancing act, and when it comes to nursing, respect goes a long way. Whatever may come, it is important for a good nurse to respect healthy boundaries and to respect all of the diverse people you serve and work with.

A nurse who exercises respect for all coworkers, patients, and families will earn a high level of respect in return. This quality is demonstrated by a professional demeanor, a mindfulness for rules and confidentiality, and a high regard for each patient's wishes.

In the home care setting, when a nurse enters a patient's home, they enter the patient's life. It is crucial to get to know each patient and their family as individuals, and to respectfully and unobtrusively work in concert with their desires and schedules. "We are in our patients' homes and we must respect their lifestyle, their environment, and everything they believe in like it is our own," Pfeiffer says, "Without respect, you cannot succeed as a home care nurse."

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Shinki kamboj is a staff nurse in polyclinic fatehabad she lives in sirsa and working in fatehabad . She is a govt. Contractual employe.Compassion plays a huge role in the nursing practice. The value statements of the healthcare profession highlight respect, compassion and care. The lack of compassion has a negative impact on patients, particularly the elderly and those suffering from terminal illnesses. Studies have shown that factors, such as staffing levels, skill mix and patient dependency often affect the level of compassion shown by nurses.

Working environments that are less than ideal can also affect the quality of care provided to patients by nursing staff. Compassionate care is expressed more effectively with actions than words.

In recent years, policymakers in the health sector have started paying a lot of attention to compassion. Ultimately, this is aimed at delivering care with decency and humanity. For this reason, nurses should aim to give patients the same level care as they would wish for their loved ones.

Only through experience of trial and suffering can the soul be strengthened, ambition inspired, and success achieved.To be a good father and mother requires that the parents defer many of their own needs and desires in favor of the needs of their children. As a consequence of this sacrifice, conscientious parents develop a nobility of character and learn to put into practice the selfless truths taught by the Savior Himself.

Suman bala is from bhuna(fatehabad) she is very good nature and hard working. She is taking her life as a challenged nurses constantly work toward professional licensure, certifications, advanced degrees, and more extensive training and clinical expertise to improve patient care.

Bedside nurses are the source of nursing's outstanding Gallup poll results, and continue to earn the admiration and praise of patients across America. They truly embody what makes a good nurse.

It's not just the polls that demonstrate how highly regarded we are, or how much we are admired. Similar messages often come from:We are at the center of every healthcare setting with a generosity of spirit, a special sensitivity and a desire to help, comfort and provide care.

We are privileged to be allowed into patients' lives in the most personal ways at the most important times.

We're the ones patients talk with and ask for and remember after discharge, and the ones patients vote for in polls and surveys and write letters of gratitude about.

In school people have challenges like bullying or stress of not doing their work on time and stereotypes.and home environment family problems and on workplace like target achieve work stress etc. People tend to shy away from a sales career due to the fact they lack self-confidence or they don't want to be the stereotype of being pushy or dishonest. A career as a successful sales representative requires a positive attitude and the ability to be creatively persistent to sell a product without forcing it on the customer. Multi racial group of high school students sitting in a circle talking and holding laptops and tablets

Students are most affected by the quality of their teachers. Not only do they interact with teachers every day in the classroom, but the quality of that interaction matters for our students' future. In fact, Stanford University economist Eric Hanushek has noted that the difference between a good and a bad teacher can be a full level of student achievement in a single school year. But students are rarely asked what they think makes a great teacher.

So, we asked. Pearson surveyed students ages 15-19 across the U.S. about what they thought made an effective teacher. Their responses highlight just how important a student-focused approach is to the learning experience. The top five qualities of a great teacher, according to students, are:

1. The ability to develop relationships with their students

The most frequent response is that a great teacher develops relationships with students. The research literature agrees with them: Teachers need to be able to build trusting relationships with students in order to create a safe, positive, and productive learning environment. For example, a student in Boston told us that great teachers are "Willing to listen to students when there is a problem."

2. Patient, caring, and kind personality

Personality characteristics related to being a compassionate person and having a sensitivity to student differences, particularly with learners, was the second most frequently reported quality. Again, there is research to support that teacher dispositions are strongly related to student learning and development.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Whether you are ready to grow your business by hiring another employee, or just looking to improve yourself as an agent, these are the characteristics that separate the outstanding travel agents from the good ones!

1. Knowledge

When travelers choose to use a travel agent instead of booking a trip themselves, they are looking for expertise. Turn yourself into an information sponge and soak up everything there is to know about airlines, airports, destinations, dining, and accommodations. Read travel articles and publications to stay current. Don't be afraid to ask your suppliers questions about the products you are buying.

2. Professionalism

Set high expectations of professionalism for yourself and your employees. Check the spelling on your emails and quotes. Put efficient processes in place for making and managing bookings rather than just "winging it" as you go. Consider implementing or following a personal dress code to help you feel at the top of your game – even if you work from home!

3. Enthusiasm

Enthusiasm is contagious. Stay excited about what you sell and your clients will catch on. Be that crazy person that loves Mondays. Keep your standards high and your goals ahead of you. Make sure to save plenty of time in your for your own travels. This will keep you excited and passionate about what you do!

4. People Skills

Are you able to pick up on subtle communication cues? Can you figure out what a client really wants when they're having a hard time expressing it clearly? Do you know how and when to close the sale? Some of these things come naturally, but much of it is learned simply by paying attention. Become a student of human nature even when you are not on the job and you will start to develop a keen ability to read people.

5. Integrity

Be honest and upfront about fares, rules and regulations. Don't try to sell something you don't think your travelers would love. Take the high road. Referrals and recommendations are your best form of advertising, but they simply won't happen if you don't maintain the highest standards of integrity.

resourcefulness

A great travel agent has the ability to think on their feet and adapt to new situations. Whether it's a forced a schedule change, an unusual request, or a missed connection, quick-thinking is essential. Learn to stay calm and navigate emergencies like a pro. Figure out what resources you have at your disposal and make it happen! Your clients will think you are a miracle-worker!

7. Empathy

Even when you do all the right things in the booking process, travel arrangements can often go awry. Airlines are delayed, bags get lost, and travelers can get sick.
