BRIEF DESCRIPTION

The general agriculture program is designed to serve students who wish to pursue a college education in the broad area of agriculture. Traditionally, students who have been undecided about their future plans have selected this major to explore the various career options available to them in agriculture before selecting a major. Some students desiring to tailor a degree to meet their career objectives in production agriculture have majored in general agriculture. In addition, some transfer students from two-year institutions find the greater flexibility of the general agriculture major useful in obtaining a bachelor's degree.

General agriculture provides a broad based program in agriculture for students who wish to have a diversified program of study that emphasizes several agricultural disciplines. In addition, general agriculture provides for an exploratory program in agriculture for students undecided about which of the 19 majors available in the College of Agriculture, Food Systems, and Natural Resources is best for their individual plans. General agriculture also provides the opportunity for students to pursue an agricultural major and to complete the requirements to be able to teach high school agriculture.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

I was born in a simple family, I have leadership qualities since childhood. The true leader is someone who earns respect through his rightful actions and mass following without any dictatorship. He inspires others to follow his footsteps and become the guiding light for the humanity. The great leader is someone who carries the torch of wisdom and enlightens the society thereby leading people to the path of progress and growth. Besides, the true meaning of leadership is having the requisite ability to enable people want to follow you while being under no compulsion as such to do so. Leaders are those people who set certain benchmarks and try to achieve those benchmarks by allowing people to judge them according to their actions and endeavors. The goals are set and all might is put towards achieving those goals, but without compromising with the ethics and morals - this is the true mark of a great leader. I talk from the standpoint of a student, I would say that our role model and leader are our teachers who unfailingly impart good thoughts to us and motivate us to become a responsible individual. They patiently deal with all the students and foster positive attitude in us so that we grow up as conscientious and compassionate being.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

I was born in a simple family, I have leadership qualities since childhood. The true leader is someone who earns respect through his rightful actions and mass following without any dictatorship. She inspires others to follow her footsteps and become the guiding light for the humanity. The great leader is someone who carries the torch of wisdom and enlightens the society thereby leading people to the path of progress and growth. Besides, the true meaning of leadership is having the requisite ability to enable people want to follow you while being under no compulsion as such to do so. Leaders are those people who set certain benchmarks and try to achieve those benchmarks by allowing people to judge them according to their actions and endeavors. The goals are set and all might is put towards achieving those goals, but without compromising with the ethics and morals - this is the true mark of a great leader. I talk from the standpoint of a student, I would say that our role model and leader are our teachers who unfailingly impart good thoughts to us and motivate us to become a responsible individual. They patiently deal with all the students and foster positive attitude in us so that we grow up as conscientious and compassionate being.

With good personality that helps the students to achieves their goals.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

I was born in a simple family, I have leadership qualities since childhood. The true leader is someone who earns respect through his rightful actions and mass following without any dictatorship. He inspires others to follow his footsteps and become the guiding light for the humanity. The great leader is someone who carries the torch of wisdom and enlightens the society thereby leading people to the path of progress and growth. Besides, the true meaning of leadership is having the requisite ability to enable people want to follow you while being under no compulsion as such to do so. Leaders are those people who set certain benchmarks and try to achieve those benchmarks by allowing people to judge them according to their actions and endeavors. The goals are set and all might is put towards achieving those goals, but without compromising with the ethics and morals - this is the true mark of a great leader. I talk from the standpoint of a student, I would say that our role model and leader are our teachers who unfailingly impart good thoughts to us and motivate us to become a responsible individual. They patiently deal with all the students and foster positive attitude in us so that we grow up as conscientious and compassionate being.

With good personality that helps the students to achieves their goals.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

my self kushal sharma .

i am from pinjore panchkula (haryana)

we have 2 brothers and sister.

i have love football in my childhood Footballers generally begin as amateurs and the best players progress to become professional players. Normally they start at a youth team (any local team) and from there, based on skill and talent, scouts offer contracts. Once signed, some learn to play better football and a few advance to the senior or professional teams. participation in amateur association football in general and concussion specifically is associated with impaired performance in memory and planning functions. Due to the worldwide popularity of soccer, these observations may have important public health implications. FIFA was founded in 1904[3] to oversee international competition among the national associations of Belgium, Denmark, France, Germany, the Netherlands, Spain, Sweden, and Switzerland. Headquartered in Zürich, its membership now comprises 211 national associations. Member countries must each also be members of one of the six regional confederations into which the world is divided: Africa, Asia, Europe, North & Central America and the Caribbean, Oceania, and South America.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

I am jyoti from Rohtak. i am athletics player i am very proud that i have choose this game. My qualification is BPed and MPed from kurukshetra university campus. i have participated in inter university and open national game i tell you about this game - Athletic contests in running, walking, jumping and throwing are among the oldest of all sports and their roots are prehistoric. Athletics events were depicted in the Ancient Egyptian tombs in Saqqara, with illustrations of running at the Heb Sed festival and high jumping appearing in tombs from as early as of 2250 BC. The Tailteann Games were an ancient Celtic festival in Ireland, founded circa 1800 BC, and the thirty-day meeting included running and stone-throwing among its sporting events. The original and only event at the first Olympics in 776 BC was a stadium-length running event known as the stadion. This later expanded to include throwing and jumping events within the ancient pentathlon. Athletics competitions also took place at other Panhellenic Games, which were founded later around 500 BC.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

I had organized a guest lecture for Retail and Sales students enrolled under NSQF project. Mr. Ghaninder khanna was the resource person invited to give his valuable knowledge and share his experiences to the trainees who would be venturing out in the competitive world to earn the livelihood in a month or two.

The lecture began with the introduction of the trainees and the guest. Sharing his life journey, he states, "It was not a smooth journey to the place where I am in today. I have learned many failures, experiences the hardship and had worked hard to reach this very place and status. It will take time to achieve one's dream and it will be fruitful and sweet". He also spoke about his career growth and importance of communication skill in the field of selling. Describing in details he said, "Customer services is important in the field of sales and customer is treated as a key and base of all the business activity. Without the satisfaction of a customer, the business will never succeed". He also gave tips on the importance and different types of body language, gesture and posture during verbal and oral communication.

I thanked Mr. Ghaninder khanna for sparing some of his valuable time and sharing his experiences and knowledge with the students. All the trainees were happy to learn about the new things and was motivated at the end of the day.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Have a sense of humor

Every teacher should have a sense of humor, and if possible be funny. Stuzavknlsandvlnskndklnvlnkasndlvkndvasdvklnsalkdn vasdv dents enjoy a good laugh now and then, and to ensure that they like a class, the teacher has to try and be funny. A teacher should make jokes, and when the students make appropriate jokes, the teacher should laugh too. This creates a bond and enables the teacher to understand the students better.

Good communicator

A teacher has to be a good communicator, no compromise on that. He/she should find it easy to stand in front of a class and teach with confidence. This is crucial in gaining respect from the students and ensuring that they learn from the best.

Understanding

A good teacher is one that is understanding and cares about the students. A teacher is bound to meet a lot of students from different backgrounds and as that is why knowledge is crucial. In class, a certain student might be hungry or sick, and the teacher should be understanding and help them in any way that they can.

Patient

Patience is very important, especially in the academic realm. When it comes to learning, not all students are gifted the same. Some are fast learners, while the others need more time to comprehend certain concepts. A teacher should be patient, and be able to accommodate all these students.

Good listener

This is a good trait that everyolcfdklkfnldnslkfnlknldfnlkdsfnlkdsfdne should have. A teacher should be a good listener, and be able to listen to the students. This is a good way to ensure that the teaching is well received.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

I have organised an interactive session for retail skill students on “Modern Retail in India” by Mr. Gaurav in which he shared his vast experience in Retail Industry, multiple channel retailing and discussed the concept of Retail Planning, Buying, Merchandising and Visual Merchandising. His effortless way of explaining the difficult concepts made the students understand wider perspective of corporate industry.

He also explained that how the mode of doing business has shifted from physical retail outlets to the online shopping, and highlighted some benefits of the online marketing and trading. He also emphasized the concept of merchandising strategy and challenges faced under the same. During the discussion he said that Retailing is very different from other industries. With technological advances there have been changes in retail environment. However this has only increased the importance of human resources as well.

He also focused on importance of various inter disciplinary fields with modern retail like Customer relationship management, Store image, Sales promotion, Public relations, Labelling.

Students were very curious to learn the working of the retail Industry.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

The Guest Faculty for the lecture was Mr. Manoj kumar. The Programme began by explaining the concept of entrepreneurship and how a person venturing into this field should not expect a profit for two years.

Mr. Manoj then elaborated on the particulars about the Company he is working with. He informed that it specialized in three verticals: Power Control Products, Agricultural Products and Cloth Fabric Products. It used store as well as non-store i.e. online based retail formats. No middlemen are used by the company.

Mr. Manoj then highlighted the intricacies of the retail strategies. The target market for all their verticals were middle aged consumers and pricing of products was based on the target market. The company should actively engage in such activities. This means that they target a hundred potential customers, from these ten persons will be interested in buying the product and from these ten persons only one person will actually purchase the product. So, by giving these examples he motivated students and give them ample of knowledge about the retail sector.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Subedar Baldev Singh was selected in Dogra Regiment (Infantry )of Indian Army at very early age .First of all getting selected in to Indian Army was a very big challenge for young boys like him who lives in to the remote areas of Himachal Pradesh . He was selected form many young boys of his age.

after joining the Dogra Infantry of Indian Army he gone through hard and tough training .

The Dogra Regiment is an infantry regiment of the Indian Army. The regiment traces its roots directly from the 17th Dogra Regiment of the British Indian Army. When transferred to the Indian Army like its sister regiments, the numeral prefix (in the case of the Dogra Regiment, 17) was removed. Units of the Dogra Regiment have fought in all conflicts that independent India has been engaged in, making it one of the most prestigious and most decorated regiments of the Indian Army..

he Dogras, the inhabitants of 'Duggar' or Dogra land hail from the Indian states of Jammu and Kashmir, Himachal Pradesh and the hilly regions of Punjab. The Dogra Regiment traces its lineage to 1858, when the Agra Levy was raised by the British East India Company as part of the Bengal Army. The Dogras were added into the Bengal Army on the recommendation of Sir Fredrick Roberts, the then commander-in-chief of India, who decided to add a Dogra regiment because he was impressed by the loyalty and soldierly qualities of Dogra troops.[citation needed] The Agra Levy was later renamed the 38th Dogras. In 1887 the 37th (Dogra) Bengal Infantry was raised and later renamed the 37th (Prince of Wales's Own) Dogras. In 1900 the 41st (Dogra) Bengal Infantry was raised and also later renamed the 41st Dogras. In 1922 the Indian government reformed the army, moving from single battalion regiments to multi-battalion regiments.[2] The 37th, 38th and 41st Dogras were all amalgamated into the 17th Dogra Regiment. It dropped '17th' from its title in 1945 and was allocated to India upon its independence in 1947.

The 38th Dogras served in the siege of Malakand in
