BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Mr. Bijender Kumar is a great personality. He is the Director of APTECH Rewari. He is a very good teacher. His teaching method is very easy. He is the Master of his subject. He Started APTECH Computer in Rewari in 1999. I kept thinking about whom is better to write: about someone of my friends, So I decided to describe the appearance of any woman I have ever known, but not related to me. So, I want to tell you about Bijender Kumar. He is an manifests in all form in my neighbor. It is manifested in everything: in the slightly hooked nose, in jet-black curly hair, in a soft, almost velvet voice and in very strong accent. Emma is a middle-aged woman, he is over forty. He is very tall, a little overweight but this corpulence surprisingly makes her such a beautiful woman. Emma is a very interesting person. She loves to laugh and to joke. But if she sees that I'm sad or upset with someone, she always helps, talks to me and calms. This woman always smells of something delicious. Emma loves a good (and terribly expensive!) perfume. She loves to wear gold jewelry and doesn't shy about this habit: she has golden earrings, a few rings on fingers with beautiful stones, heavy vintage bracelet with a reddish tint. "Gold adorns a real woman at the best way, it was invented especially for us," says Emma about her jewelry. It's funny, but I agree that women should monitor their appearance and to beautify oneself! I could write much more about Him

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Ravi kishore yadav is a good guest lecturer. His teaching method is very good. His teaching experience is 8 . Teachers are people who help to pass knowledge to other people. They are important people in the society because they help to pass wisdom to the people in the society. This helps to fight illiteracy in the society. Apart from teaching, teachers help in ensuring that the learners in the society are disciplined. This is because teachers act as strict disciplinarians in the schools where they teach. They also help to evaluate the capability of students to advice their parents on the requirements of each child. Teachers also act as parents because they take care of the learners while at school. There are various characteristics of good teachers. These characteristics show what makes a person to be termed as a good teacher.

One of the characteristics of a good teacher is that he/she should be a good communicator. A teacher must be able to communicate to students well because they are required to pass knowledge to students through communication. Another characteristic of a good teacher is that he/she calm. Though students will make mistakes time and again, a good teacher should avoid shouting to them. He/she should calmly correct the students when they make mistakes because this will enhance learning. Teachers should also use technology to teach their students. A good teacher is also capable of using sense of humor while teaching because this will help to maintain the attention of the learners and will lead to efficient learning. A good teacher ensures good management skills that help him/her to manage time and resources well while at school. This is important because it ensures efficient learning.

A good teacher maintains a fair attitude towards all learners no matter their learning speed. This ensures equal learning opportunity for both fast and slow learners. Moreover, good teachers have a good command of the subjects they are supposed to teach. When a teacher has a good command for the subject they are teaching, they pass good

Being able to engage students with humor, creative lessons and a strong classroom presence is an important part of what makes someone a good teacher, Tanguay said.

“If you were to envision that teacher that you would want in your life, even now, you’re going to want someone who is very engaging in front of the classroom,” he said. “A good teacher will perform for their students to keep them going... It’s not about sitting back and just lecturing, it’s about engaging in the work.”

What an engaging teacher looks like will vary depending on grade level and subject matter, Tanguay said.

In kindergarten, an engaging teacher might be one who gets down on the floor to do activities with their students on their level. In high school, an engaging teacher may be one who thinks outside the box, adds humor to their lessons and finds creative ways to bring learning into the real world. love the subject, and are genuinely fascinated by it and its possibilities.

They keep up to date with developments through popular magazines, books, radio and tv programmes.

They keep up to date with academic research in the subject.

They proactively seek and take part in professional development opportunities.

Mr. VIPIN Kumar is a great personality. He is the Center Head of MAAC Rewari. He is a very good teacher. His teaching method is very easy. He is the Master of his subject. I kept thinking about whom is better to write: about someone of my friends, So I decided to describe the appearance of any woman I have ever known, but not related to me. So, I want to tell you about Vipin Kumar. He is an manifests in all form in my neighbor. It is manifested in everything: in the slightly hooked nose, in jet-black curly hair, in a soft, almost velvet voice and in very strong accent. Emma is a middle-aged woman, he is over forty. He is very tall, a little overweight but this corpulence surprisingly makes her such a beautiful woman. Emma is a very interesting person. She loves to laugh and to joke. But if she sees that I'm sad or upset with someone, she always helps, talks to me and calms. This woman always smells of something delicious. Emma loves a good (and terribly expensive!) perfume. She loves to wear gold jewelry and doesn't shy about this habit: she has golden earrings, a few rings on fingers with beautiful stones, heavy vintage bracelet with a reddish tint. "Gold adorns a real woman at the best way, it was invented especially for us," says Emma about her jewelry. It's funny, but I agree that women should monitor their appearance and to beautify oneself! I could write much more about Him

He has a long period experience in the field of computer education. He taught at Aptech Institute from the year 2002 to 2014.

After this he starts his own computer education institute Named Active Care computer center. In this institute he starts many courses under Pradhanmantri Kaushal Vikas Yojna.

He works in this Center from the year 2014 to till date.

He has a great knowledge in this field and has a great experience.

Students are very happy by his teaching methods. He clears every single doubt of the students that they ask him. He also does practical teaching of the students. Because practical is an important part of computer education. Whatever students learn they can implement it on the computer systems and can see that what they learn.

We are very happy to invite Mr. Tarun Kumar as a guest lecturer in our school.

Ms. Manisha Yadav is a great personality. She is the Director of MAAC Rewari. She is a very good teacher. His teaching method is very easy. She is the Master of his subject. She Started MAAC Computer in Rewari in 2012. I kept thinking about whom is better to write: about someone of my friends, So I decided to describe the appearance of any woman I have ever known, but not related to me. So, I want to tell you about Manisha Yadav. He is an manifests in all form in my neighbor. It is manifested in everything: in the slightly hooked nose, in jet-black curly hair, in a soft, almost velvet voice and in very strong accent. Emma is a middle-aged woman, he is over forty. She eis very tall, a little overweight but this corpulence surprisingly makes her such a beautiful woman. Emma is a very interesting person. She loves to laugh and to joke. But if she sees that I'm sad or upset with someone, she always helps, talks to me and calms. This woman always smells of something delicious. Emma loves a good (and terribly expensive!) perfume. She loves to wear gold jewelry and doesn't shy about this habit: she has golden earrings, a few rings on fingers with beautiful stones, heavy vintage bracelet with a reddish tint. "Gold adorns a real woman at the best way, it was invented especially for us," says Emma about her jewelry. It's funny, but I agree that women should monitor their appearance and to beautify oneself! I could write much more about Him

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Satish is a good guest lecturer. He belongs to rewari. His experience is good. His teaching method is nice. He has good quality of teacher. Teachers are people who help to pass knowledge to other people. They are important people in the society because they help to pass wisdom to the people in the society. This helps to fight illiteracy in the society. Apart from teaching, teachers help in ensuring that the learners in the society are disciplined. This is because teachers act as strict disciplinarians in the schools where they teach. They also help to evaluate the capability of students to advice their parents on the requirements of each child. Teachers also act as parents because they take care of the learners while at school. There are various characteristics of good teachers. These characteristics show what makes a person to be termed as a good teacher.

One of the characteristics of a good teacher is that he/she should be a good communicator. A teacher must be able to communicate to students well because they are required to pass knowledge to students through communication. Another characteristic of a good teacher is that he/she calm. Though students will make mistakes time and again, a good teacher should avoid shouting to them. He/she should calmly correct the students when they make mistakes because this will enhance learning. Teachers should also use technology to teach their students. A good teacher is also capable of using sense of humor while teaching because this will help to maintain the attention of the learners and will lead to efficient learning. A good teacher ensures good management skills that help him/her to manage time and resources well while at school. This is important because it ensures efficient learning.

A good teacher maintains a fair attitude towards all learners no matter their learning speed. This ensures equal learning opportunity for both fast and slow learners. Moreover, good teachers have a good command of the subjects they are supposed

Mr. Lalita Kumar is a great personality. He is the Computer Teacher in Rewari. He is a very good teacher. His teaching method is very easy. He is the Master of his subject. He Started this job from 2010. I kept thinking about whom is better to write: about someone of my friends, So I decided to describe the appearance of any woman I have ever known, but not related to me. So, I want to tell you about Lalit Kumar. He is an manifests in all form in my neighbor. It is manifested in everything: in the slightly hooked nose, in jet-black curly hair, in a soft, almost velvet voice and in very strong accent. Emma is a middle-aged woman, he is over forty. Heis very tall, a little overweight but this corpulence surprisingly makes her such a beautiful woman. Emma is a very interesting person. She loves to laugh and to joke. But if she sees that I'm sad or upset with someone, she always helps, talks to me and calms. This woman always smells of something delicious. Emma loves a good (and terribly expensive!) perfume. She loves to wear gold jewelry and doesn't shy about this habit: she has golden earrings, a few rings on fingers with beautiful stones, heavy vintage bracelet with a reddish tint. "Gold adorns a real woman at the best way, it was invented especially for us," says Emma about her jewelry. It's funny, but I agree that women should monitor their appearance and to beautify oneself! I could write much more about Him
