As you are aware, skill development for enhancing employability of youth is one of the priority areas of the Government of India in order to reap the benefits of demographic dividend. In school system, the policy of integration of vocational education with general education is being followed. In order to implement this policy, the Ministry of Human Resource Development is implementing a scheme to provide financial assistance to the States/UTs to promote vocational education at Secondary and Higher Secondary level as a component of Rashtriya Madhyamik Shiksha Abhiyan (RMSA) with an aim to enhance the employability of youth and also to reduce dropout rate at secondary level.

Aluwa

In this regard, I would like to inform you that during a presentation of the Group of Secretaries "Education and Social Development", an observation was made that National Service Scheme (NSS)/Scout may be used for advocacy and campaign on skills. As you are aware, under the component of Vocationalisation of Secondary and Higher Secondary Education (VS&HSE) under RMSA, there is a provision for granting Rs. 2 lakh per school for different expenses including expenditure on awareness, publicity, guidance, counselling, etc. The States/UTs may utilise this fund/provide comments on engaging National Service Scheme (NSS)/Scout also for advocacy and campaign on skills.

It was also observed during the presentation that High schools may be tagged with nearby ITIs, vocational institutes. Vocational education under RMSA promotes linking the schools with commercial and industrial establishments, ITIs, Polytechnics, Community Colleges, hospitals, farms, etc. depending on the vocation and the nature and level of practical training required for specialized practical work and training in course. Funding provision for the same has also been made in the scheme. It is requested that this provision for providing hands on training to students may also be fully operationalised.

Yours faithfully,

(Sushil Bhushan)

Under Secretary to the Government of India
